

THE KOLORS

BIOGRAPHY

The Kolors, a pop band rooted in Funk and Disco, comprises Antonio Stash Fiordispino (vocalist and guitar), Alex Fiordispino (drums), and Dario Iaculli (bass). Originating from Milan's underground club scene in 2010, the band rose to prominence as opening acts for Paolo Nutini (July 2012), Gossip (November 2012), and Hurts (March 2013) in Italy.

Their breakthrough came in 2015 when they clinched victory in "Amici," Italy's premier TV talent show. Their debut album "Out," propelled by the hit "Everytime," achieved 5-time platinum status. It debuted atop the Official Italian Album Chart, maintaining the position for 12 consecutive weeks, setting an Italian record for a band.

In 2017, their sophomore album "YOU" featured collaborations with artists like Gucci Mane on the single "What happened Last Night."

The band debuted at the Sanremo Festival in 2018 with their first Italian single, "Frida (mai mai mai)," a radio sensation.

In 2019, "Pensare male" (feat. Elodie) became the #1 Italian song on the Official Airplay Chart. They closed the year with the release of "Los Angeles," featuring Guè Pequeno. Their 2021 radio hit "Cabriolet Panorama" attained multi-platinum status.

Maintaining a strong presence in live performances, the band embarked on a summer tour in 2022, playing over 70 concerts to an audience of more than 500 thousand. In 2023, signing with Warner Music Italy, they introduced a new artistic direction with the smash hit "ITALODISCO," certified 4x Platinum in Italy and charting across Europe.

February 2024 saw the band unveil their latest single, "UN RAGAZZO UNA RAGAZZA," at the prestigious Sanremo Festival. The single has already achieved Gold certification in Italy and is on track for Platinum status.
